

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

J. Willard Marriott Library

MEDIA ADVISORY

Contacts:

Valoree Dowell, U of U National News Specialist, vdowell@utah.edu, 801-585-6861

Heidi Brett, J. Willard Marriott Library, University of Utah, Heidi.Brett@utah.edu, 801-661-6764

Jennifer Devlin, Ibarra Strategy Group, Jennifer.devlin@cox.net, 703-876-1714

Utahn Mickey Ibarra To Be Recognized for Public Service, Leadership to Latino Community

Collection of papers contributed to Marriott Library

March 22, 2012 –The University of Utah will recognize and celebrate the contributions of The Honorable Mickey Ibarra, former Assistant to the President and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs for The White House and founder of the Latino Leaders Network, at a series of special events taking place March 26-29 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Event details include:

Mon., March 26

5:30-7:30 PM

Alta Club

100 East South Temple

Open to Media

Utah Leaders Reception Honoring Mickey Ibarra

Hosted by Salt Lake City Mayor Ralph Becker; former Mayors

Rocky Anderson, Ted Wilson and President and CEO of the Salt Lake City

Chamber of Commerce and former Utah Senate President Lane Beattie

Wed., March 28

12:00-1:00 PM

University of Utah

Orson Spencer Hall, Rm 253

Open to Media

Hinckley Institute Forum Keynote Address

Keynote address by Mickey Ibarra

Thurs., March 29

5:30-7:30 PM

University of Utah

J. Willard Marriott Library

Open to the public

Directions/ Parking: <http://www.lib.utah.edu/info/directions.php>

The Mickey Ibarra Papers: A Utah Journey to the White House

Celebrating the Contributions of The Honorable Mickey Ibarra, former

Assistant to the President and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs, The

White House

About the Mickey Ibarra Papers

A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, Ibarra has donated photos and documents that chronicle his rich career in public service, public policy and his contributions to the Latino community. The materials include the history of Ibarra's service in The White House under President Clinton (1997 - 2001), during which time he served as the President's liaison to the nation's mayors and governors. After his tenure in The White House, Ibarra established the Ibarra Strategy Group, a government and public affairs firm based in Washington, D.C. that represents a range of clients including Fortune 200 corporations, associations and non-profit organizations. In 2006, Ibarra founded the Latino Leaders Network, a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing leaders together.