

Personal Research Reproduction Request

The J. Willard Marriott Library Special Collections makes copyrighted and public domain materials available for research, teaching, and scholarship.

Copying of copyrighted materials by U of U libraries for a patron's personal use is governed by U of U Policy 7-013, <http://regulations.utah.edu/research/7-013.php>

1. The making of a single reproduction of copyrighted matter, including works contained in the collections of the university libraries or archives or obtained by interlibrary loan, is permitted if:
 1. The University reasonably believes that the reproduction is made without any purpose of direct or indirect commercial advantage;
 2. the copy will become the property of the user;
 3. the university has no notice that the copy will be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research; and
 4. such reproduction and the intended use to be made of it constitute, fair use.

Public domain works are materials no longer protected by copyright law. Investigate copyright and public domain status: <http://www.lib.utah.edu/research/copyright.php>

Special Collections reserves the right to refuse permission when such imaging would cause injury to materials, and/or violate donor restrictions.

Please add acknowledgement of the use of Special Collections materials: Special Collections, J. Willard Marriott Library, University of Utah. Include complete and accurate citations (call number, item numbers, and/or page numbers) for all items reproduced.
