

VESALIUS

Celebrating 500 Years of Innovation

The J. Willard Marriott Library, in partnership with the Spencer S. Eccles Health Sciences Library, presents Vesalius: Celebrating 500 Years of Innovation, celebrating the contributions of Renaissance physician Andreas Vesalius [1514–1564] to anatomy, medicine, education, and book design.

LECTURE

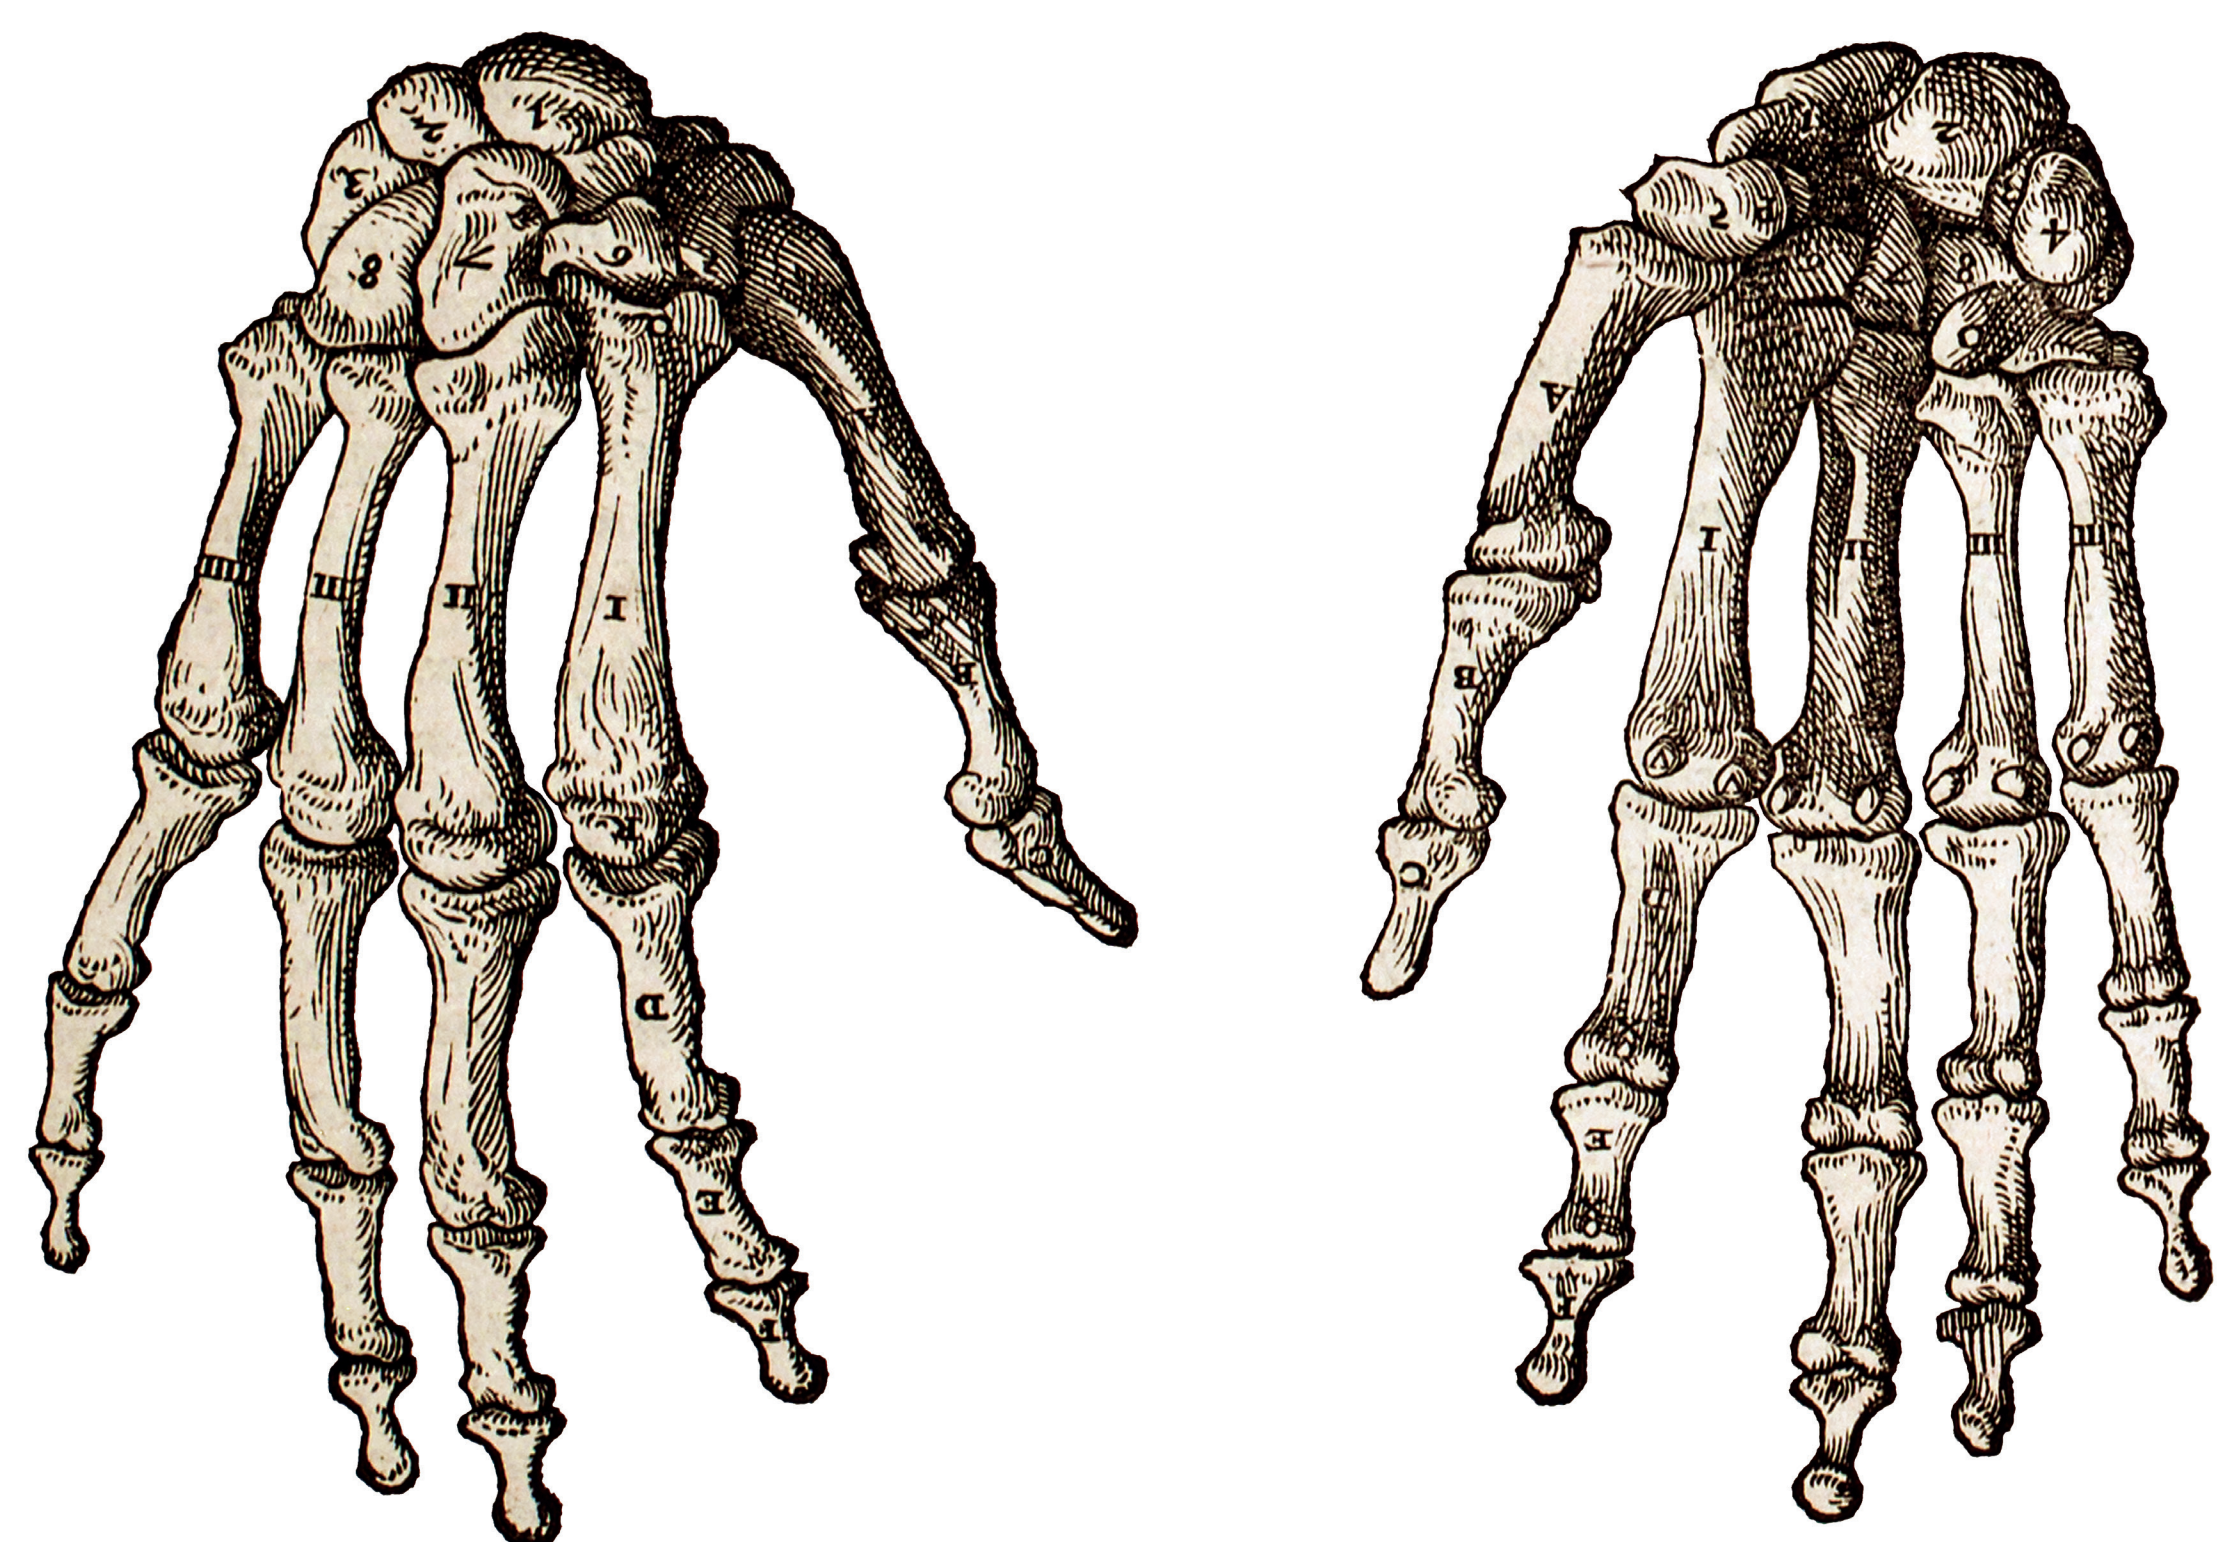

September 18, 6:30 PM

Gould Auditorium, Level 1

Renaissance Man: The Art and Science of Andreas Vesalius

Professor Mark T. Nielsen

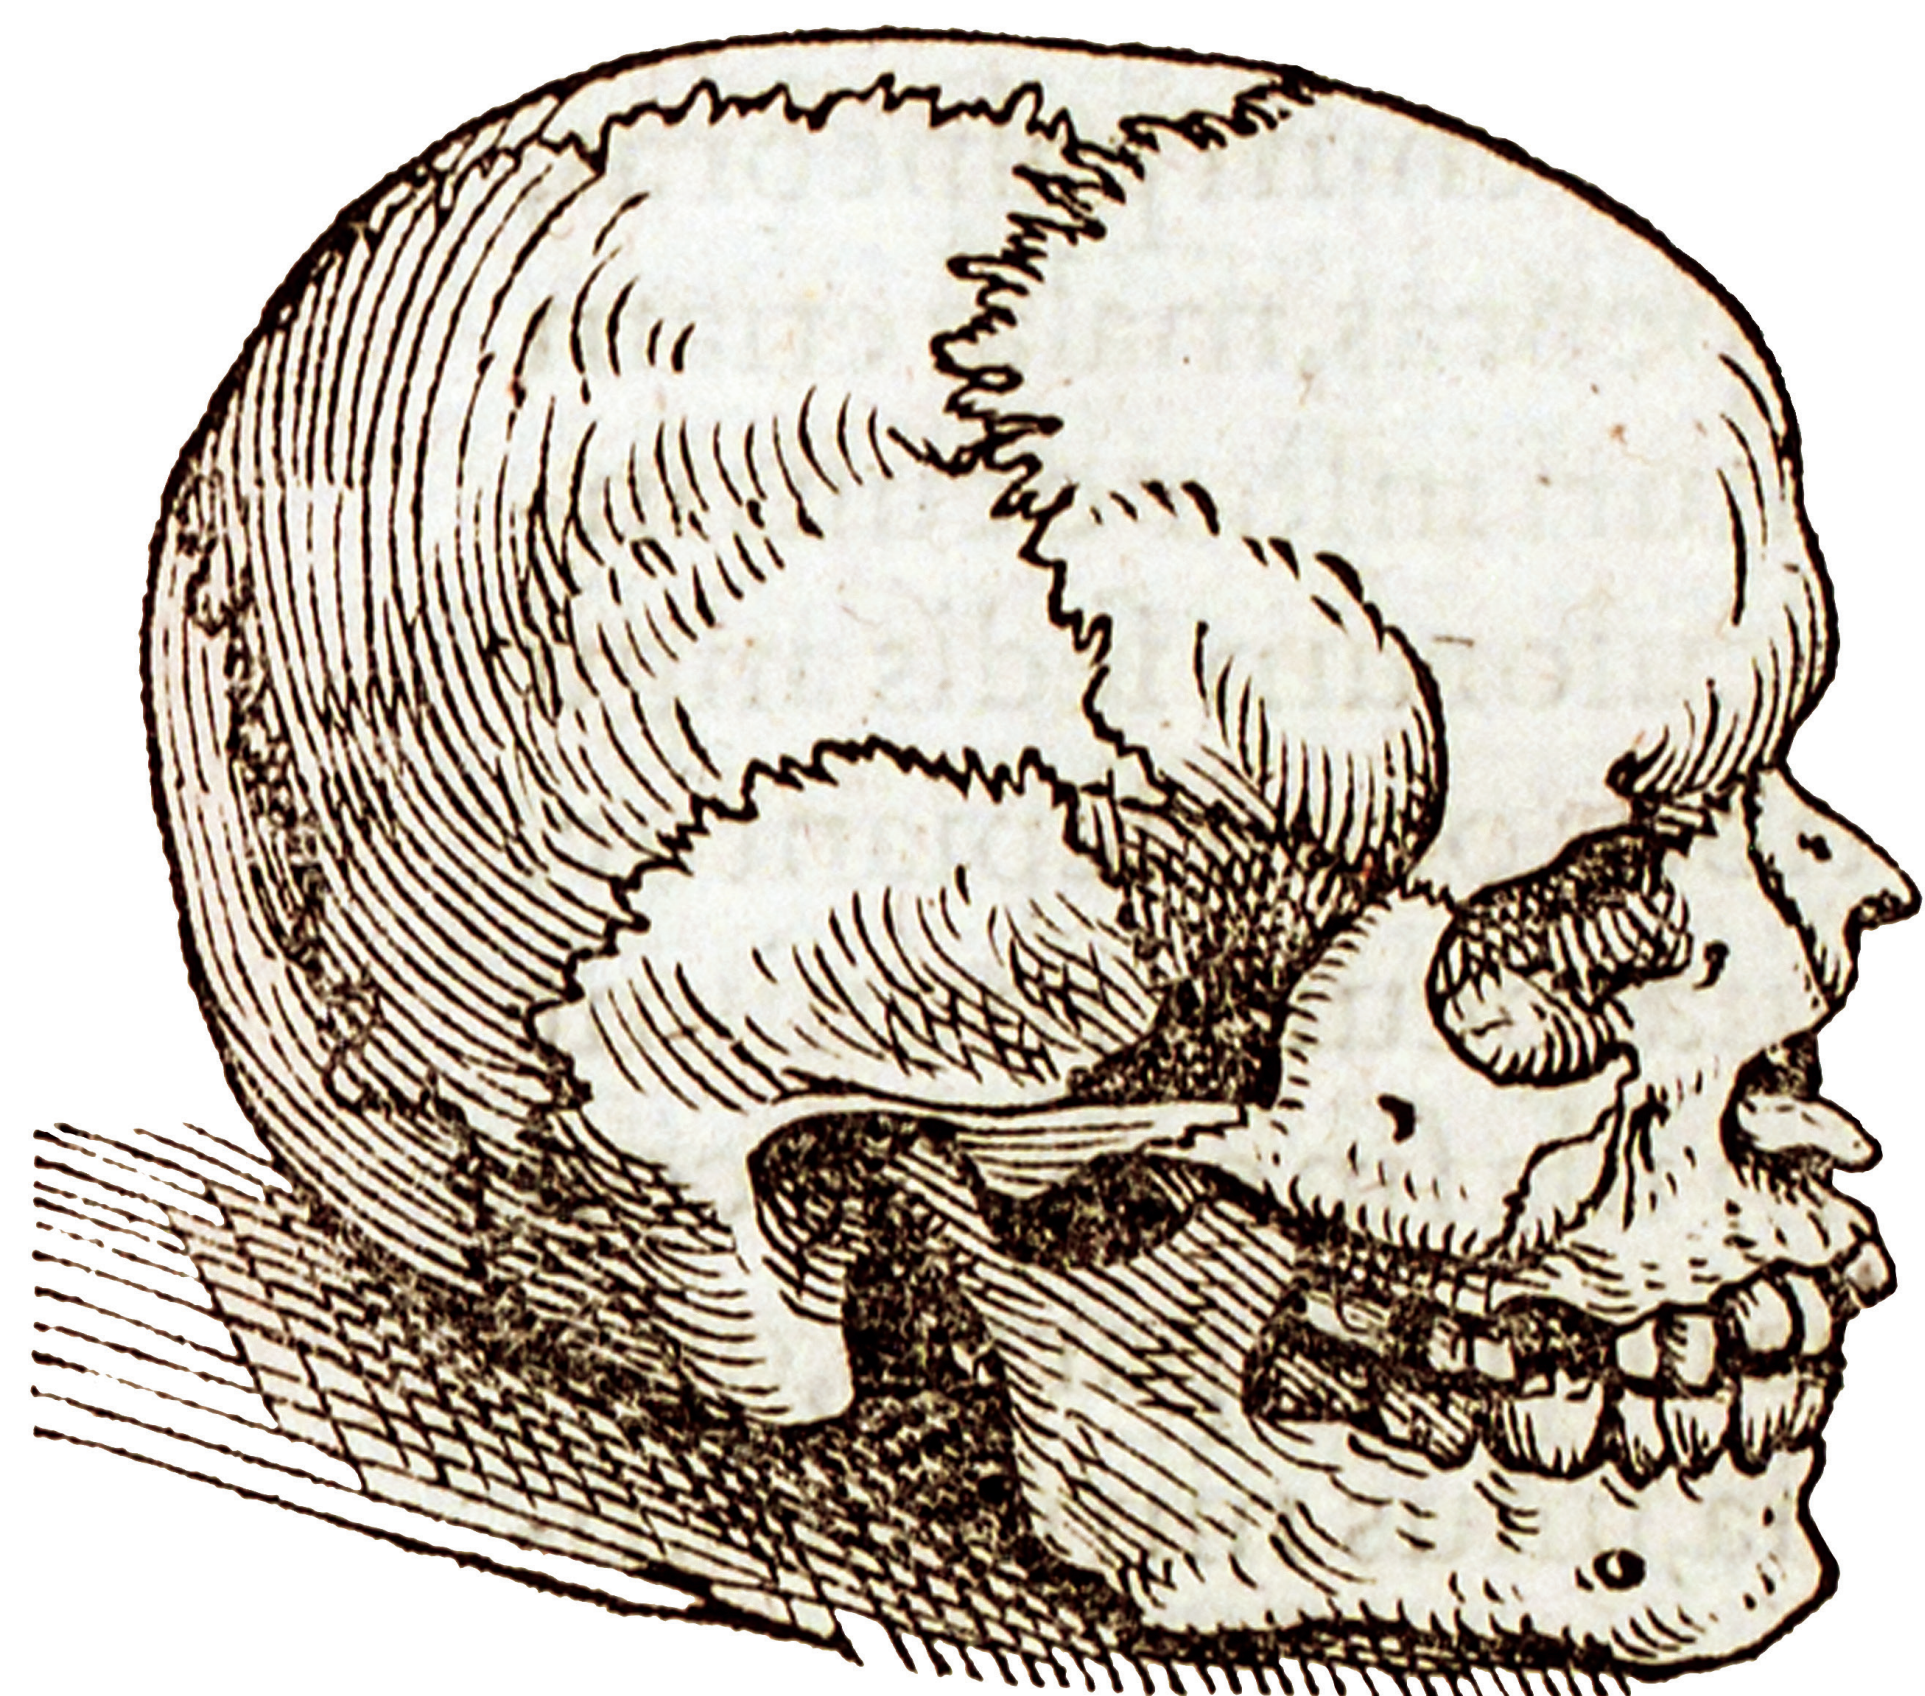

The University of Utah

RECEPTION

September 18, 7:30–8:30 PM

Special Collections Gallery, Level 4

See the Marriott Library's De Corporis Fabrica fully digitized:
<http://bit.ly/vesalii>

EXHIBITIONS, LEVELS 1–5

July 11–October 3

Level 1

Anatomical models, facsimile prints from Leonardo da Vinci's anatomical studies, facsimile editions of early medical texts

Levels 2, 3, & 5

Anatomical models, enlarged images from the Marriott Library's copy of Vesalius' De Corporis Fabrica [1555]

Level 4

Down to the Bones—first editions of Vesalius, Vitruvius, William Harvey, Rene Descartes, Denis Diderot, and others

UNREQUIRED READING

July 1–31

Level 1