REPRODUCTION ORDER FORM

Reproduction of any kind is very damaging to manuscript or printed material. We strongly discourage reproduction requests unless absolutely necessary. Reproduction must be approved on an item by item basis by the Rare Books curator. A minimum of 24 hours may be required to provide reproduction. Photocopies are $.50 per sheet. For digital reproduction, please contact the Rare Books curator. Orders for photocopies are paid at the General Reserve desk on Level One. Orders for digital reproduction are paid via invoice from the Digital Technologies Division provided by the Rare Books curator. For whatever use, images must be properly cited: Rare Books Division, Special Collections, J. Willard Marriott Library, University of Utah. Please be aware that any images of items from the Rare Books Division belong to the J. Willard Marriott Library and not the patron requesting reproduction. Images produced by digitization for any requesting patron may be used by the library for any purpose. Please be aware of copyright and permission to publish restrictions. If you are planning to publish reproductions, you must first consult with the rare books curator. Images for use in publication include those produced by the Digital Technologies division and the Rare Books Division. The use of cameras for reproduction by patrons is prohibited.

I understand that the use of this/these reproduction(s) for publication of any sort is strictly prohibited without consultation with and signed consent of the Rare Books curator.
